In Indiana, excise taxes are a significant source of revenue for local governments, and on average, have increased at a rate of five percent per year. This report analyzes the effects of HEA 1598, passed in 1995, and HB 1297, passed in 1996, on excise tax revenue.